Berries on Bryan Station Farm

“Better Food for a Healthier You”

Welcome to your eighteenth basket pickup! Although the veggie fields are in decline, the berries are revving up! Here is what we have for you this week:

Raspberries

We have picked a pint for you this week.

We have had a number of members enjoy picking lots of berries. Recent rains have really plumped up the berries. We need your help picking them! Please stop by whenever your schedule permits. Feel free to bring a friend to enjoy the “berry bliss” experience!

Butternut Squash Pie

Butternut squash is a real treat for you today. I prefer butternut squash to pumpkin pie. If you have not had this before, it is easy to make tasty dishes from it. It is brighter orange and has a delicious taste. Place the whole squash stem and skin and all on a flat pan in an oven at 350 degrees for about an hour. The whole squash will become soft. Allow it to cool, then remove the skin and seeds. Mash the rest of the pulp. Add 2 eggs, a can of non-fat Eagle brand sweetened evaporated milk, ¼ teaspoon of cinnamon, ¼ teaspoon of ginger, 1/8 teaspoon of cloves, and 1/8 teaspoon of nutmeg. Mix it with beaters, then pour it into an unbaked pie shell. Brush milk around the edges, then sprinkle sugar on the dough. Bake it about 45 minutes at 350 degrees.

Peppers

Tomatoes

Coming in the Next Two Weeks:

Sweet Potatoes

We are curing these for you so that they will store well.

Sunflower Heads for Birds

Dried Beans

Corn Stalks

We will have precut corn stalks ready so that you can arrange attractive Fall decorations.

Choice Table

The choices this week include Eggplant and Okra. We pick the okra so that it is small and tender.

Herbs

We have a prepicked assortment for you to choose from.

Cut Flowers

Gloriosa daisies and colorful zinnias make beautiful arrangements for you this week.

New Web Site

We now have a new web site, thanks to my youngest brother who lives in California. You can check it out at www.berriesonbryanstation.com! We will be posting newsletters there. The last pickup days will be September 26th and 27th.

New Brochure

We have a new brochure for the farm. You will be receiving a copy next week.

Andrew English

This is Andrew’s last week. Be sure to wish him well on his bicycle trip and thank him for his efforts. We hope to have him with us next year!

Mushrooms

This is your last opportunity to get awesome mushrooms. I will take orders today and tomorrow for next week delivery.

Thank you for your support.
See you next week,

Erik Walles & Family (Gayle, Brett & Grant) and
Andrew English
